Chrome: Google's web version is useful, but still lacks some functionality after all these years. Toolbox for Google Play Store helps correct many minor problems to facilitate the use of your Apps.Toolbox, created by the Android police of the site, offers a ton of cognil changes. In particular, in addition to the installation button, you will also see a button for the APK mirror. This site (which is also the property of Android Police) hosts APK for apps that may not yet be loaded. This is particularly useful if you emptied an app that is not yet turned to everyone. See also the buttons for Apprain (an alternative way to explore the game store) and the Android police cover for that app, if they exist. The extension will show you even if there is a beta version of an app available. Many companies perform Beta for their apps to test new functionality before rolling to all, but you have to find them alone. This extension will now show you a Handy Link where you can sign up for Beta Beta Immediately download the bleed border version. Best of all, you can deactivate any toolbox feature individually. So if you don't know or take care of what AppBrain is, you can deactivate that button in the extension options. For now the extension is rather naked bones, but the few features that have enough at hand. Toolbox for Google Play Store | Chrome Web Store via Android Policeç / or the media can get a commission
