This year 34 of the competition should attract to 20,000 visitors and competitors band members. The 2019 lineup featured a total of 43 different bands, with 24 bands in the parade and 30 bands in the field performance. In 2020 due to covid-19 pandemic a modified event was performed without spectators. The Parade Band Festival follows a route adjacent to Covell Lake. Bands will go down near Terrace Park and West Travel along Madison Street, then turn south on North Lake Avenue. Judging will take place in front of the Boy Scouts of America Building. This route is narrow proximity to the competition field in Howard Wood Camp. During the parade and prelims, bands compete in four classification and ranking classification, with judgments that offer evaluation and comments to competitors. Trophane are granted for the three major bands in each class. In the end, the 10 bands advancing compete in a class for trophane for the first five places. Class field A SIBLEY-OCHEYEDAN à €
