Take Your VA Driving Exam Passed the Test. This website is VERY HELPFUL. All due to practice on this site. Keep on doing more and more tests there is so much material here. This test was exactly like the permit test. I learned more on this site than I learned in my drivers Ed class over 6 years ago. The most helpful sections are the signs and fines because I didnt know there were so many signs, and didnt know a majority of the regulations for fines and the amounts. And I didnt just memorize the info either, I actually learned from the questions because of the hints and explanations for each one.

I was really nervous as first about taking my permit test but after a couple tries more like 40 I finally succeeded. When I took my test I passed after the 1st try. People yall have to trust me, it really, really does help. You just cant have your phone on or watch Tv for two weeks. I aced my CDL class A learners exam with the help of this site. Nearly all of them appear here as they do on the actual test. This really helped learning the answers 10 times faster than reading the DMV manual from cover to cover which i did do but it nearly put me to sleep several times. Im 67 and took all the motorcycle tests before even attempting the DMV. Received a 100 on the written test. The tests are great prep for the real one. Thanks to this website, I started with MCQ preparation test from this website and later read the DMV guide, It made a lot sense when I read the guide. I spent the better part of 3 days studying all of the tests this website had for the driving test within my state and was able to pass my test today for the first time with a breeze. I know I would not have been as successful just reading through the driving manual provided by the DMV. This website provides questions that are nearly identical to those shown on the actual DMV tests and as such provides a great way to prepare to ace your exam the first go around.
