Go get your copy now and let's start learning! All rights reserved. Using this study guide, and taking the permit practice test will help make the process easy. Before taking a drivers test, young drivers in Arizona should study the Arizona Driver's License Manual and become familiar with each of the important driving rules required of licensed drivers. Test takers must obtain a score of at least 80 percent to pass the written exam. The test has 30 questions, so at least 24 questions must be answered correctly. Each of the questions is in multiple choice format.

Test takers should expect to be tested on a variety of drivingrelated topics such as the meaning of certain road signs and the appropriate measures to take in different situations. When studying the manual, remember that the permit test will cover only your knowledge of traffic laws and safe driving practices. Administrative information is not likely to be tested. There are some key chapters to read, such as For example you should know tips such as it is recommended to use your turn signal for 4 seconds before turning. Pay special attention to knowing the road signs and pavement markings on pages 3338. For example you will have to know the meaning of signs by their shape for the test. You should also know the alcohol and driving rules on pages 4647 and pages 5052. The correct choice might be the best answer rather than the only answer. All company, product and service names used in this website are for identification purposes only. Use of these names, logos, and brands does not imply endorsement. It contains information on traffic laws in your state, as well as helpful driving tips that you should practice when you get behind the wheel. Updated regularly, your drivers license book will be useful to you for the rest of your driving career. And, spoiler alert even after you've been driving for a while, you're still going to have questions about road rules, no matter how comprehensive your drivers ed course was. It details how to get a drivers license, important road rules like rightofway, tips for handling emergencies, and so much more. The easiest way is to navigate to your state's drivers licensing agency's website and view the handbook online. You can also download it so you have your own copy, or you can pick up a physical copy of a DMV handbook when you're at your licensing agency's office. In our modern world, technology is going to continue to have an impact on driving, and that's going to affect traffic laws.

With our online resource, you'll always have access to your state's drivers handbook, which means you'll be able to see the latest changes when they go into effect. You'll always be uptodate, and if that means avoiding traffic tickets and other hassles, it's a huge benefit to you. If you're still using your beatup copy of your drivers handbook from back when you took drivers ed, you may be getting outdated information. While reading about driving rules is not the same thing as following them when you're behind the wheel, you'll be a lot better off if you have a thorough understanding of safedriving practices. This knowledge will help prevent you from getting traffic tickets and being involved in car accidents, which means you'll also enjoy a lower car insurance rate. What could be better than that. So even if you've already got your drivers license, be sure you're regularly brushing up on your driving safety information. Youand other drivers on the roadwill be glad you did. Get a Quote. This includes but is not limited to tow trucks, tractor trailers, and buses. The CDL regulations are designed to insure highway security by requiring that truck drivers and drivers of tractor trailers and buses meet minimum standards. The Act additionally allows the elimination of drivers that are deemed unsafe or unqualified. States such as Arizona are given the authority to issue Commercial Driver's Licenses, however the minimal federal government requirements must be met. Group A Combination Vehicle CDL License When you have a Group A CDL license, you are allowed to drive any vehicle or combination of vehicles of any size. With a Group B CDL license, you might be allowed to drive any single vehicle regardless of weight. As well as, you might be allowed to tow a trailer if the trailer's gross vehicle weight rating GVWR is lower than 10,000 pounds.

If the trailer you might be towing has a GVWR of more than 10,000 pounds, and the combined vehicle weight rating is more than 26,000 pounds, you will need a Class A CDL. As well as, a Class C CDL also allows you to operate any vehicle used to transport hazardous materials if the GVWR is lower than 26,001 pounds and you have the correct endorsement. The endorsement exams are described below. Hazmat materials are identified by the Federal Department of Health and Human Services and require a Hazmat placard. Moreover, a driver must obtain a passenger endorsement before acquiring a school bus endorsement. Moveable tanks having a rated capability under 1,000 gallons are not required to have this endorsement. The air brakes examination is completely different than the endorsement exams because the air brakes exam works as a restriction instead of an endorsement. If you dont pass the air brakes exam, your CDL will bear a mark of restriction which means that youre not authorized to drive a commercial vehicle with air brakes. The Governor's budget provides funding to combat the opioid crisis, expand DPS Night Watch operations to respond to wrong way drivers, and increase patrol coverage in Southern Arizona. Wrongway drivers are a nationwide problem, and happen all too often in Arizona. During 2017, there were over 1,700 wrongway drivers reported in Arizona. Additional troopers will increase coverage to more quickly respond to reports of wrongway drivers, or other dangerous driving reports, within the Phoenix area. However, the best resource to stop a wrongway driver starts with you, the public. Most wrongway drivers are impaired drivers; if you, or someone you know, have been drinking, don't get behind the wheel. We are just days into 2018 and DPS troopers have already intercepted and arrested three wrong way drivers on Arizona highways suspected of impairment.
