The story of Jesus and the early church should not end. Jesus Christ laid the foundation for the church through His life, death, and resurrection as recorded in the four gospels. The followers of Jesus Christ then continued His work by spreading the gospel through preaching and teaching and the planting of new churches. To continue the work begun by Christ and His disciples, new church planting should be at the top of our list of priorities, as it was in theirs. As someone who hasn't read other books on church planting, it is a good introduction, I feel. I don't agree with some of the extremes of Mull's opinions, but I appreciate the passion God has given him in this calling. It comes out of the Wesleyan denomination and written by their Director of Evangelism and Church Growth. It is poorly written and covers topics that have been discussed thousands of times in thousands of other books. It breaks no new ground. Even though it is mercifully short, I do not recommend this volume. There are far, far better writings on the subject. There are no discussion topics on this book yet. In it is story after story of the Lords hand in the growth of the church through missions and church planting. Although the age of the apostles was an extraordinary time in the life of the Church, the narrative of Acts lays out many practical principles for church planting that abide in all times and places.

One practical point to learn from Acts is that we need not only a passion for the work of planting new congregations, but a willingness to respond to the Spirits leading and engage in the work of planting churches whether as the overseeing church or as partnering churches. He is the sovereign Spirit of missions. If we are going to be commissional churches, obeying our Lords command in Matthew 28, we need to be sensitive and obedient to the leading of the Holy Spirit in the 21st century. There was no oversight, no elders, no group of supporting churches. The church no longer exists. The Spirit calls missionaries and church planters through the church as Acts 13 shows. Yet even this is no guarantee, as my secondhand experience has validated, that although a person may be sent by a church they often return as failures. Why Because they had not truly been called of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit uses ordinary means, not just a desire. A church planter must be gifted and prepared for the task. The Holy Spirit had been preparing Paul by equipping him in three areas. The Holy Spirit who is sovereign calls those whom He has prepared. He can do this because He is sovereign. For it is he who called everything out of nothing Genesis 1. He elected us by His good pleasure Ephesians 1. He as the Lord of creation provides rain and sunshine Psalm 104. He raises up kings and casts them down Proverbs 21. He appoints nations, their boundaries, and their durations Acts 17. He recreated the dark, void mass of chaos in the beginning Genesis 12; Psalm 104:30. He who powerfully raises dead sinners to life John 3; 1 Peter 3. He called Paul to preach in Acts 13. Notice where they tried to go but where they were led to go. They were being led inbetween the region of Asia in the south and Bithynia in the north through a desolate region with no major cities. Were the Macedonians more deserving of the gospel than the Asians or Bithynians. Did God love Macedonia more.

We must simply say with John Calvin that it was the secret will of God. By preaching in Macedonia the gospel came to Lydia, the Philippian jailer, Thessalonica, one of Pauls great ministerial joys, Berea, the studious believers, Athens and the great debate on Mars Hill, and Corinth. This story can be told over and over again by missionaries and church planters. In fact, one of my parishioners told me after we began the Oceanside United Reformed Church that she and her husband had prayed for 10 years that a Reformed church would be started on the coast of north San Diego. Why did God wait for 10 years. We dont know. What we do know is that after 10 years of praying several families had come to the knowledge of the Reformed doctrines and all lived in coastal north San Diego County. At the same time I was graduating from seminary, having gone with the purpose of planting a Reformed church in Orange County, where my wife and I were from and where there are only few Reformed churches. Yet, the mysterious and sovereign plan of the Holy Spirit led us to where we are today perfectly in His will, not ours. We must humbly submit to the revealed things of the Word in church planting and the Spirit will do His work. Our task is to preach, evangelize, make disciples, be outward focused, do everything according to the Word, plant seeds and see what the Lord will do. We know that we are called to be salt and light in the place God has put us, so lets be faithful in that task. What method and means do we use. We are to preach Christ and Him crucified. It is the Word of the gospel, which is the power of God unto salvation Romans 1:16, the Word of Christ, by which hearing comes faith Romans 10:17. The Word! The Word! The Word! In an age of gimmicks, methods and programs the book of Acts focuses on Gods method of preaching But the word of God increased and multiplied. And the word of the Lord was spreading throughout the whole region.

So the word of the Lord continued to increase and prevail mightily. He lived there two whole years at his own expense, and welcomed all who came to him, proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance. 67; 1224; 1349; 1920; 283031 In saying this, we must not overspiritualize this process and task by emphasizing the Holy Spirit's sovereign work to the point of hyper-Calvinism, waiting for some sign from heaven to go and preach. We must also be wary of overemphasizing the method and means of church planting preaching lest we become too centered on our hearers' thoughts and feelings and seek to seduce them through the wisdom of man. Instead, we want both the sovereign Spirit to do His ineffable work but also the Word, which He has ordained, to be joined together.
