September 20, 2013 PDT My dad's first tractor was a 1941 Case SC, and he's now in the process of slowly restoring it. In seven weeks he will turn 90. I am looking for a good picture of a 41 SC with the center-mounted exhaust and lights on the fenders for two purposes.

I'd like to use the photo for his birthday cake and, as maudlin as it might seem, for his headstone. He had his headstone placed several weeks ago complete with a picture of a Case tractor. But it's not his tractor because the monument company couldn't find one. He would be very surprised to see his tractor on his birthday cake and on his headstone. Please contact me if you have a picture or if you have this model tractor and can take a picture. Darran Chandler wrote on Tuesday, September 03, 2013 PDT Hello, My Grandfather used a Case tractor while he was alive. It's still on the family farm rusting away. Recently someone literally busted the front iron grill to steal the radiator out of it for scrap. I'm not a tractor expert, but it appears to be a 1940's SC model No electric start. Front two wheels are close together. I grandchild would love to see somebody restore, or use it for parts instead of it rotting away. Please contact me if anybody is interested in this piece of history. And I will ask the elders if they will part with it. It appears to be intact except for busted up grill and radiator missing, and spark plug wires from cows eating them. The engine of course is locked up from sitting, but supposedly new liners and pistons before he passed away in mid 70's. Thanks. Carl Clark wrote on Sunday, June 02, 2013 PDT How to rebuild and adjust disc brakes on a 1941 sc case tractor. Mary Ann Franks wrote on Wednesday, May 22, 2013 PDT Where can I find a service and parts manual for a Case SC 1951 hand clutch. Thanks for your help. Steve Sexton wrote on Sunday, May 12, 2013 PDT Does anyone know if there are different heads on a case SC I have one but it has a different number than mine, PS anyone have a cyl.head for a CASE SC. DOUG BRIGGS wrote on Monday, April 29, 2013 PDT What was the HP rating for the case SC tractor, My Dad had one in the early 1950's. It was a nice tractor.

Paul Fett wrote on Monday, February 18, 2013 PST I have a 1953 Case SC wide front, foot clutch serial number SC8031672 which I am in the process of restoring. Just got all the engine parts I needed and will start rebuilding the engine soon. I am waiting to find out if that tractor came new with a mageto or distributor. This was my father-in-law's first tractor. Randy K wrote on Wednesday, June 06, 2012 PDT I have a 1942 Case sc restored love it, dupont paint code 75195x imron 5.0 beautiful color! Tim Kirk wrote on Sunday, August 21, 2011 PDT I have 1943 case sc and need a steering shaft hosiing, and gear. Bill Hoffstatter wrote on Saturday, August 06, 2011 PDT I bought an old Case Hay Wagon Chassis. I'm positive this was originally a horse drawn wagon. HELP PLEASE!!; Thanks, Bill. Robert Baldree wrote on Wednesday, July 13, 2011 PDT I just became the owner of a 1948 case tractor or that the year the man said it was. Where do i find out for such what year it is, model and so on. If you can help let me know thanks Jay Wells wrote on Wednesday, December 08, 2010 PST My dad bought a SC case he thinks in 1954. We stored this tractor for 30 years and decided to restore it last year. Its in tough shape but with some love she'll run again. We're not sure what year it is. Curt Johns wrote on Saturday, August 21, 2010 PDT My clutch froze up on a 1948 Case. I am needing information on how to free it up. The clutch is a hand clutch. Anyone with any wisdom let me know PLEASE!!! Thanks, Curt This Tractor is still running and in use today. If you know where i can get one pless email me But it needs to be split it leaks oil bad. It's not that big of a deal to split it and put a new gasket in it, and a new clutch in. I was wondering what this tractor might be worth. Mark wrote on Monday, August 03, 2009 PDT I recently bought a 1948 case tractor for 500. I was able to start it right up and it runs good. I am having a problem though where it does not have the power to get up hills.

Can someone let me know if you have had this problem and how you solved it Bruce wrote on Saturday, May 09, 2009 PDT A Case SC weighs about 4000 lbs. At least that is what my owners manual tells me. Al wrote on Thursday, May 07, 2009 PDT About how much would the Case SC weigh without implements or accessories? I had a bucket over the exhaust and intake pipes and engine turns over with the hand crank. Two questions; 1 one rear break stuck, will be tough to load on trailer any suggestions for freeing Second, owner said he does not remember draining the radiator 6 years ago tough Indiana winters I am wondering about cracked engine block. I have looked hard don't see obvious cracks but any help appreciated. Price is fair I believe, all parts are there so I want to buy the tractor. Thanks much. It was originally purchased by my grandfathers father and runs perfect. My son and I show it every chance we get and use it around the house regularly. I would love to find the two row cultivators that were designed for it. Emile wrote on Saturday, April 11, 2009 PDT I have a 1948 SC a lot of photos show some Flambeau Red and some look ORANGE what the deal. Bob Rohm wrote on Thursday, March 19, 2009 PDT I am interested in a Case SC. Anyone with one to sell please contact me. I am in Western New York State. Thanks. Noreen Argue wrote on Monday, March 02, 2009 PST I recently received my Dad's 1951 SC case. It is in need of a paint job which will be done in the near future. He bought the tractor brand new in Ewart, MI. I, as a young girl, use to drive the tractor on the hay wagon while my brothers would load the bails of hay. Then one Saturday, my brother couldn't get off work to help my Dad, so I took his place helping. What was it doing. None other than driving it on the manure spreader. I dearly loved this tractor and am proud to have it. I am the only remaining family member, had to wait 37 or so years to get it but it still carries some pleasant memories.

Other than for the paint, the clutch pad is all that needs to be replaced. It was all overhauled recently and the motor runs like a top. I don't think a case can be beat. They are my favorite tractor. Derek A wrote on Tuesday, January 06, 2009 PST We have a 1953 Case DC with the 3pt hitch eagle hitch I believe case calls it. It doesn't run. I'm wondering if I bought an SC would the 3pt come off the DC fit the SC. David wrote on Wednesday, December 10, 2008 PST Does anyone have rear tires for my case tractor I am restoring 1026 or 11.226. 7017826801. Deborah Plotts Kellstrom wrote on Wednesday, June 25, 2008 PDT My father bought a Case tractor in the 1940s. He still has it and is not sure of the year. The number is 5525259SC. Any info would be welcome. Brent wrote on Tuesday, June 24, 2008 PDT I have this case tractor, I think it's a 1949 5031A. Anybody want to buy it 4064225421. June 24, 2008 Little older, little wiser wrote on Saturday, April 12, 2008 PDT Hey there Case folks. I've seen several posts here from youngsters and would like to just say one thing. Don't sell Grandpa's Case. I nearly did twice, looking back, that would have been the most regrettable move I ever made. I've got 2 SCs now, working on 3. Best wishes, and maybe together we can educate the world that Flambeau Red is not Orange. Jeremy Johnson wrote on Monday, April 07, 2008 PDT I think that may be my old SC. Ross Rozendaal wrote on Monday, February 25, 2008 PST I have a 54 case sc and am looking for a set of push rods, carb. 11535, and fenders. Thanks Good luck you guys. Rod Shirley wrote on Friday, February 15, 2008 PST Does anyone have a really nice, straight, complete, 53 or 54 sc for sale My number is 423 775 6312 JR reich wrote on Wednesday, December 05, 2007 PST I bought a case sc model tractor about 2 months ago. Any information I can get on it would be greatly helpful. I also need to know how to maintain it to keep it running good please if you have anything Email me thank you.

Ron Naslund wrote on Thursday, November 29, 2007 PST I have driven several of these from CCs and SCs to DCs and they were all pretty good tractors. Easy steering for the day and decent horsepower. My stepfather had a DC and CC and a friend had two DCs, one brand new in 1954 with a mounted plow. I have a friend Dennis Bjorling that owns a DC and a SC and wants to sell them as he has no interest in them. Both have loaders on them and one has new rear tires. The engines ran a while back and we are working to get them going again so we can get them in the machine shed. Stewart Hummer wrote on Thursday, November 08, 2007 PST I have a old International Harvester corn binder and I am very interested in selling it, but, do not know what would be a fair price. Could you give me some insight on this. It is in pretty good shape the wood would have to be replaced. The wheels all turn good so it is functioning. Ron A wrote on Sunday, November 04, 2007 PST I Have a 1949 SC case fully restored, new 6 ply rear tires tubes, complete sleeve piston kit installed I purchased this kit in 1984 when there was only 2 available in my area gave 350.00 installed in 10 05 eng has 50 hrs 1600.00. William Champion wrote on Friday, November 02, 2007 PST I am pleased to say I own one of these tractors, but I need a magneto cap for it. Dan Rivers wrote on Wednesday, October 10, 2007 PDT I am restoring my second 1952 Case SC. I will travel far to get what I need Please if you know of anyone that would like to sell some parts or complete, let me know. Bill Bailey wrote on Thursday, July 26, 2007 PDT My family has a 1938 Case, model C that my grandfather bought new. I grew riding and driving it but the engine locked up a few years ago and it's been sitting in our wagon shed, but we think we can free it with some diesel in the cylinders. I'm looking for fenders as I plan to restore it. Pilojgvh wrote on Saturday, July 07, 2007 PDT See you. Thanks, it's great to receive such positive comments.

Sally Jardine wrote on Wednesday, July 04, 2007 PDT I have a 1950 or 51 Case SC tractor for sale. My husband restored it and it looks lovely. He has passed now and I would like to sell it for his kids. Any ideas where to advertise Thanks. Adam Riggs wrote on Wednesday, April 04, 2007 PDT Hoping To Make A Wish Come True. On July 16, 2000 MY Uncle Wrote A Story About His 1948 Case SC, His Love For The Old Case, and Hopes of Fixing it up. And Have it in parades and shows. Maybe You could help. It needs a total overhaul, paint job, some parts missing caps on top of hood radiator, gas filler caps, hand crank, gauges, base bracket for seat, it needs a bit but hope to complete this, maybe some one out there could help. Larry Garrigus wrote on Wednesday, October 18, 2006 PDT I was raised on a 1946 SC Case with the hand clutch and two wheels close together in front.
