I like to have a clean house, so I worked hard to develop strategies and times to keep it that way. Your sparkle house! Deep cleaning your home you decided it's time to clean your house in order and keep it clean. After following my plan for the decomprehension of your house, you are ready to give it a deep cleansing. If your cleaning has been overlooked for a while, or if you just moved to a pre-possed house, this could be a great project. You may be able to throw it in a weekend, but if not, follow my seven-day plan for the deep cleansing of your house. It was done, you can follow my weekly cleaning program to keep it sparkling and beautiful. You will be amazed to find out how a clean house positively affects your mood and those of your family. Planday 1: Deep Cleaning Day kitchen 2nd day: Bathrooms Day 3: Bedrooms Day 4: Drappe and Blinds Day 5: Day 6 Fans: Plans day 7: Take the dish or tray from the microwave to wash and dry. Clean the oven with a cleaner for all uses.day 1: Clean Deep Your kitchen Kitchen needs a general cleaning every evening after dinner. For deep cleaning, you need to focus on large appliances as well as all kitchen surfaces. Here are some articles that will need special attention: refrigerator: From the top, take everything, clean every shelf while you go. If a shelf is removable, take it out and clean it with hot soapy water. Most drawers are removable and should also be washed in this way. Don't forget the small shelves inside the door. Clean the outside of the refrigerator, paying special attention to the handles. Oven: If you do not have a self-cleaning oven, use a cleaner as easy. For standard furnaces, consider the bottom coating with aluminum foil for easier future cleaning. This will not work with convection ovens. Microwave: extract any removable trays and wash in hot and soapy water. Clean and scrub if necessary with a detergent for all uses. Small household appliances: clean all the crumbs in the toaster and toaster oven. Clean the surfaces of all small appliances. Cabinets, shelves, drawers: grab a damp rag and clean stains, spills and sketches with a cleaner for all uses as fantastic. This is a job with which children can help. Countertops: remove everything from counters and dry with a cleaner for all uses. Shower cleaning (before photo) Day 2: Deep Cleaning YourBathrooms baths can become pretty bad if they have not been cleaned regularly. The problem areas will probably be the bath and shower. Follow these tips for cleaningof your baths: showers / bathtubs: if you have a shower caddy, take it out and wash it. It may also be necessary to replace. Clean the attic with an old toothbrush and a bath cleaner, such as soft scrub. You may need some heavy detergents for soap storage or mold stains. The toothbrush works well on the jets of the tub and other small places difficult to reach. Lavelli and countertops: take everythingcounter and dry with a bath cleaner. Use a toothbrush to rub the dirt around the sewers and taps. Toilets: sketches of the bit of cleaning in the bathroom, faint with the brush of the toilet and let it soak to fight any stain. Cabinets and drawers: clean with a cleaner for all uses. 3rd day: Clean Deep Your bedroom Your rooms have already been declined, then this job will not take too long. Dust bunnies have no place to hide. These are some tips for deep cleaning bedrooms: You might be surprised to see all the dust that collects on the back of furniture like drawers. Use the vacuum attachments to reach these points. Clean all mirrors with a small glass cleaner. Clean the headboards, footboards and bedposts of all your beds. Deep cleaning blinds: delete the shutters with a damp cloth. Day 4: Deep clean curtains and accessories for vacuum cleaner Blindsyour can be very useful to clean drapes and curtains on a regular basis, but if they are really dirty, you may need to take a different approach. Here are some suggestions: the drapes may have to go down to be washed. Blinds must be dried with a damp cloth. Don't forget to clean the window windows too. Take the time to give your windows a good cleaning with Windex or another glass cleaner. Ceiling fans Cleaning: Ceiling cancellation Blades with a microfiber wet.day 5: Deep clean light fixtures and Fansa feather Duster will not be good enough to get rid of thick dust on ceiling fans and bright fixtures. Here are some tips on how to deal with these difficult areas to reach: use a staircase to reach ceiling fans and high luminous fixtures. Be careful while cleaning powder tufts. You will need a cloth or a slightly damp rag in microfiber. If a light device is very dirty or has bugs trapped inside, you will have to lower it and wash it out. Check the bulbs to see if necessary to replace. Use a vacuum cleaner to reach the lockers in the kitchen and other difficult points. Day 6: Clean Deep Your floorstafter Vacuum and dry the floors, you may still notice an accumulation of angles and around the edges of the floors. There's no easy way on this ... You'll have to climb four legs with a wet rag and clean it. These are some basic tips for cleaning floors: use a broom attack or vacuum to get under all the furniture and in difficult places to reach. For the mesh, use a small amount of cleaner in hot water and a mop damp (not soaked). While you're working onof the floor and the corners, also clean all the skirting boards. Cleaning the spring A porch: you will enjoy the porch after it was cleaned. Day 7: Deep Clean Your Porchnow The interior of your home is really clean, it's time to work on the porch. Dust, pollen and bugs have taken over, so here are some suggestions to clean the porch: if you have water-resistant porch furniture, move it to the courtyard or driveway and spray it with the water pipe. For pillows Pillows, scrub clean or wash if the fabric lids are removable. Use a duster pole to get rid of cobwebs. Clean all glass tops with glass detergent. While the furniture is drying, use a blower or a broom to sweep all dirt, insects and leaves. Using a nozzle for water pipes, Jet Spray the whole porch. Use a scrub brush for stubborn steps. Clean any railings or woodworking. Replace furniture when everything is dry. You are ready to entertain guests in your beautiful clean home. Housenow of your home is immaculate, so you can sit and enjoy your result. Or invite some friends for a meal ... you're ready to entertain! Keep your home clean with a weekly cleaning program, and you will only need to do spring about once a year. I hate House CozyClean on 12 April 2018: Cleaning the ceiling fans has a small country house. It's a cat. And warm with wood. And so we have a lot of ceiling fans. That have always been covered with cat hair (don't ask). I usually underneath the damn things when they arrived at the point where it seemed to be more fur on the fans than on the cat. The back and shoulders and neck hurts. And it only seemed to last about 32 seconds. A couple of months ago, my â €
